

RESOLUTION NO. 1916

BILL NO. 36-0007

THIRTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

Regular Session

2025

A resolution honoring and commending James Sasso for distinguished service in the mortuary and funeral service industry

WHEREAS, the profession of funeral directing is a cornerstone of societal compassion and empathy; and

WHEREAS, funeral directing offers a vital service that transcends mere ceremonial duty by providing essential guidance, comfort, and support to individuals and families during the most heartbreakin and challenging times of their lives; and

WHEREAS, funeral directing serves as a bridge between the living and the departed, ensuring a respectful and honorable farewell to loved ones while simultaneously offering solace and a pathway to healing for those left behind; and

WHEREAS, funeral directors stand as pillars of strength and stability, and they foster a sense of community, continuity, and respect for life's sacred transitions by helping families navigate through the complexities of loss, providing a compassionate presence, and facilitating meaningful ceremonies that honor the life and memory of the departed; and

WHEREAS, in the midst of sorrow and grief, the role of a funeral director extends far beyond logistical arrangements and ceremonial conduct; it encompasses the profound responsibility of creating a sanctuary of peace, dignity, and reverence, enabling families and friends to come together in shared mourning and remembrance; and

WHEREAS, through their dedicated service, funeral directors craft an atmosphere that allows for the expression of grief, the celebration of life, and the beginning of healing; thereby offering a crucial service to society by upholding the values of empathy, respect, and human dignity at a time when these are most needed; and

WHEREAS, James Sasso was born on June 26, 1964, in Anguilla, British West Indies, to the late Claris and Edmund Sasso; and

WHEREAS, James Sasso, having embarked on a fulfilling family life in St. Thomas over 40 years ago, is married to Risa Sasso and they share three children and three grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, James Sasso initially pursued a career in electrical engineering and after serving as an electrician for over 38 years, transitioned to funeral directing, where he demonstrated a profound passion and dedication to this vital service; and

WHEREAS, James Sasso has been employed at Turnbull's Funeral Home and Crematory Services for over 16 years, where he serves as a funeral director, and is also a certified crematory operator; and

WHEREAS, James Sasso has been recognized numerous times as the No. 1 Funeral Director in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, by the Virgin Islands Daily News readers; and

WHEREAS, James Sasso's commitment to excellence in funeral procession etiquette and the funeral farewell march has set a high standard in the industry, providing comfort, dignity, and a meaningful farewell to bereaved families during their time of loss; and

WHEREAS, James Sasso's unique blend of professionalism, compassion, and in-depth knowledge of the funeral industry has earned him the reputation as a funeral director of "Top Quality Excellence"; a distinguished gentleman with wisdom, valor, and passion; and a beacon of light for many during their darkest hours; Now, Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the Virgin Islands:

SECTION 1. The Legislature of the Virgin Islands, on behalf of the people of the Virgin Islands, honors and commends James Sasso for the significant impact of his work as a funeral director, especially in the areas of funeral procession etiquette and the funeral farewell march, and for the comfort and guidance he provides to numerous families in their times of grief.

SECTION 2. In recognition and appreciation of his many years of extraordinary dedication, compassion, service and professionalism in his service in the funeral industry, the President of the Legislature, or the President's designee, shall present a perma plaque copy of this resolution to James Sasso at an appropriate ceremony held for that purpose.

Thus passed by the Legislature of the Virgin Islands on June 27, 2025.
